

Dear Teacher,

Thank you for picking up our Letter of the Week Picture Book Kit. We have long been inspired by your creative crafts, recipes, and activities that get children excited about learning the alphabet, and we'd like to join in on the fun!

Enclosed you will find twenty-six letter cards. Each letter card shows the uppercase and lowercase letter, along with art from a picture book that can be read in class to reinforce the letter. After each letter card, you will find a reproducible activity sheet that allows children to trace and then write the letter. These activity sheets also include more book recommendations for reading at school and at home.

Here are some ways to bring alphabet fun into the classroom:

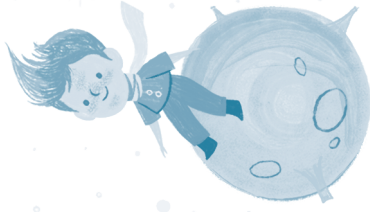

- Hang all the cards in your classroom as a beautiful alphabet border.
- Hang cards up as each letter is introduced to students.
- Make the alphabet “sticky” with hands-on activities: perhaps your class makes jam sandwiches after reviewing the letter “J” and reading Bear Likes Jam.
- Award students the printable Alphabet Mastery Certificate on page 2 of this kit.
- At the end of the year, assign a letter to each student and have them dress up as an object that corresponds to the letter. Walk through the hallways in an Alphabet Parade to show the school they've learned their letters.
- Review our Comprehensive Alphabet Books List and our Alphabet Tools to supplement learning and recommend for at-home reading practice.

Visit us on the Random House Children's Books Pinterest page for more letter of the week book recommendations and reproducible activity sheets. And let us know if you or a colleague have exciting content that we can pin to our board.

Sincerely,
Your friends at Random House Children's Books
