

fully present at home allowed you to work without guilt or fear of missing out on the lives of your spouse and kids?

Whatever it is you're doing at work, at home, or elsewhere, doing it "all for the glory of God" will involve you being present and available.

Be a husband and father willing to show up fully, for the glory of God and to show love and care to those around you.

Dear Lord, thank you for always being fully present with my family and me. You never show up halfway for any of us. Help me to model that same kind of presence for those around me.

I want my life to bring you glory in everything I do. Amen.
